

Rees Scholarship Foundation

2012 Achievements / 2013 Action Plan

Attracting the Brightest Students to our Industry

12/21/11
Launch of the new Rees website reesscholarship.org

02/01/12
First online scholarship application received

04/10–04/11/12
Staff visit two technical colleges in Atlanta, GA

05/09/12
Rees Board meets and reviews first draft strategic plan

08/07/12
Review Committee awards $18,500 in scholarships

10/26/12
Review Committee awards $16,850 in scholarships

2011		2012										2013
Nov.	Dec.	Jan.	Feb.	Mar.	Apr.	May	June	July	Aug.	Sept.	Oct.	Nov.	Dec.	January–December

11/13/11
AHRI Board supports Rees by approving an opt-out approach for contributions

January 23–August 1, 2012
A group of students from Johns Hopkins Carey Business School volunteer to study the operations of Rees

09/06/12
Keith Coursin, President of Desert-Air, presents check to James Jagler

11/02/12
Rees launches programs for returning veterans and instructors

11/05/12
Staff finalizes revamp of Rees operations, expects reduction of operational cost

11/10/12
Rees Board meets and approves new opt-out approach

11/11/12
Staff present scholarship checks at San Joaquin Valley College

With YOUR HELP, the Rees Scholarship Foundation WILL:

- raise $120,000 from AHRI members
- award more than $50,000 in scholarships
- develop and expand new scholarship programs for returning veterans and instructors
- release sponsorship levels
- finalize 2013–2017 strategic plan
- coordinate activities with NATE and the HVACR Workforce Development Foundation